Natalie Page is coming to visit her aunt and uncle in New York. Of course they want her around, but every social engagement is more important, even when she is ill. So Natalie starts to focus on small mysteries like her stolen bracelet, and observe the people around her. She writes a lot about their norms, habits and deeds. Would she be able to thrive during her stay or would she always remain in the shadow of her socialite aunt and cousins? Would she be able to find herself? - Summary by Stav Nisser.

Genre(s): Family Life
Language: English

Read by LibriVox.org volunteers Jim Locke and Kathleen Moore.

Total running time: 06:04:56

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission.

For more information or to volunteer, visit LibriVox.org

Cover picture is a book page (published 1921). Background-photo and design are by schrm and are in the public domain. Copyrights expired in U.S., Canada, EU. and all countries with author’s life +70 years laws.
Natalie Page is coming to visit her aunt and uncle in New York. Of course they want her around, but every social engagement is more important, even when she is ill. So Natalie starts to focus on small mysteries like her stolen bracelet, and observe the people around her. She writes a lot about their norms, habits and deeds. Would she be able to thrive during her stay or would she always remain in the shadow of her socialite aunt and cousins? Would she be able to find herself? - Summary by Stav Nisser.
Genre(s): Family Life
Language: English

Read by LibriVox.org volunteers Jim Locke and Kathleen Moore.

Total running time: 06:04:56

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission.
For more information or to volunteer, visit LibriVox.org
Cover picture is a book page (published 1921). Background-photo and design are by schrm and are in the public domain. Copyrights expired in U.S., Canada, EU. and all countries with author’s life +70 years laws.